We the class of 2008

Mr. Robert Gallagher

Mr. Gallagher is one of the most intelligent teachers at Marshfield High School. Whether he is teaching about Teddy Roosevelt, Ted Kennedy, or even Ted Williams, it seems like Mr. Gallagher knows everything about everything. However, this is only one part of what makes Mr. Gallagher worthy of the yearbook dedication. Mr. Gallagher is selfless, always giving up his own time for his students. He will go out of his way to make sure his students succeed, learning about both history and life. Walking into Mr. Gallagher classroom one finds a unique setting of the room that is comparative to his own personality; a carpet like atop of the cold floor and carious pictures and drawings line the wall. In this room Mr. Gallagher enriches the minds of his students showing them how the world worked, and also how it works. He is the SAT instructor at the high school, a history teacher, a night school teacher, and an important part of Marshfield High School. Whether asked a question about history or a college recommendation, Mr. Gallagher is willing to help in any way he can. His masterpiece project for AP U.S. History II, probably the most extensive assignment at the high school, prepares his students for college level work while giving them a unique perspective on the past that is impossible to obtain in any textbook. It is because of Mr. Gallaghers compassion dedication and intelligence that he passes on to his students that the 2007-2008 yearbook is rightly dedicated to him. We, the graduating class of 2008 want to thank him for preparing us for the future and providing the school with invaluable resources.

Mrs. Kim McGourty

I chose Mrs. McGourty for my yearbook dedication because she is very devoted to making her students achieve their goals. Mrs. McGourty is my favorite teacher because she treats every student the same and makes learning fun for everyone. Her easy going, good natured personality makes her classroom a happy environment. Mrs. McGourty is a teacher that deserves this dedication for all her hard work and her ability to look past a student's reputation and bring out the true person in them. Even when her days aren't the best, Mrs. McGourty manages to greet every student with a smile. I have had Mrs. McGourty for two years as a homeroom teacher, and everyday I look forward to going to homeroom just to say hi to her. Mrs. McGourty treats everyday as a new opportunity for fun and learning; she has a great personality for teaching. The most admirable thing about Mrs. McGourty is the way she focuses on her students every time she makes a lesson plan so that we will not get bored and lose focus. She is a devoted teacher whom treats everyone equally and gives every one a chance to shine in her classroom. Mrs. McGourty never holds a bad grade against a student; instead, she shows how to do better next time. Mrs. McGourty is an important part of Mansfield High School because she is one of the rare find teachers that every students wants to have and every student likes. She is a happy-go-lucky teacher that can teach the hardest of students and make it fun. She shows every student how to achieve their goals in her classroom. Mrs. McGourty is always a good listener and is always available to speak with her students if we need advice, counsel, or just a good laugh. Her honesty in all things only reinforces the depth of her responses during discussions and conversations. Mrs. McGourty is a truly a great motivator and an amazing teacher. Mrs. McGourty deserves this dedication so much for everything she does for both her students and the school.

Class of 200

Be the Change!

The Leadership Summit of 2007 was an incredible experience. It united the school after an entire summer of separation. The Summit instilled the tremendous pride of Marshfield High and every student in attendance. It was a great way to get to know classmates outside our own cliques. The workshops taught me how to be a true leader in life and how to make a difference, not only in the halls of Marshfield High, but in my community. The low ropes activities developed teamwork and helped integrate under- and upperclassmen. The greatest reward during this Summit during the last few precious days of summer was the Sunset Boat Cruise, where we partied with our new friends. Overall, the 2007 Be the Change Leadership Summit was two days of fun and learning that would spark an entire year of leading my class, school, and community to be the change.

Meet Me At THE TOP

Meeting on the mountains the first opportunity to bring the class together as seniors. We bussed our way to the Blue Hill Mountain. Our caravan of yellow limos arrived full of seniors pretty enthusiastic to be on a field trip again. The day was about having fun while also directing our focus towards success. The day was wrapped up with lunch on the summit and a fun bus ride home.

Spirit Week has always been an event geared towards unifying the classes together, and for our graduating class it has been a chance to work with a diverse group of classmates. The Deck The Halls competition has been important to the class each of the past four years, but this year as seniors, we are proud to have taken home the prized trophy. The pep rally dance-off brought about plenty of laughs and added to the week's events; and for the first time in many years the Seniors were the loudest in the "RAMS" cheer. The competition that evolved between the grades was highlighted by close scoring tallies and the the unknown whereabouts of the Junior scoreboard. A special thanks goes to Svenja Sjoquist who has been the leader of these event for the past four years. Without her dedication, hard work, and direction we would have never gotten the job done. Good luck next year! -- Ryan Gorman, Class Historian

SENIOR YEAR!

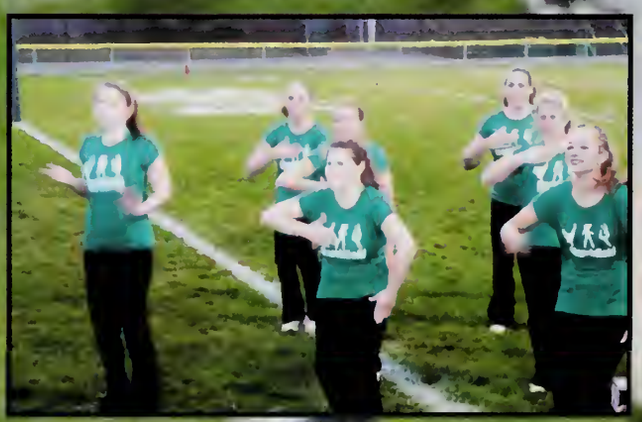
Who says you can't go home?

This year we had a very successful homecoming organized by MHS Key Club. For the first year we didin't just focus on the traditional football game. We scheduled sports such as girls soccer, field hockey, volleyball, and a few others at home on Friday. This gave more people a chance to come back and support the high school. Principal Keuther used the theme "Who says you can't go home?" encouraging the alumni and others to come participate in our homecoming celebration. After the games in the afternoon, we held a cookout for the MHS staff. Later that night we had a full turnout at the homecoming football game. The Rams played a great game wining against Plymouth South. Senior Taryn Asta was crowned homecoming queen. The next night the Key Club held the annual Homecoming Dance. We were able to sell over 500 tickets. We danced to DJ Club T and Senior Mike Gilbert was crowned homecoming king. Overall, the entire weekend was a success. It brought not only the high school kids together, but the families and alumni as well. We look forward to another great homecoming next year. Cam Macfarlane, Class President



Powder Puff

On November 17th, 105 girls, coaches, and friends gathered at the Second Annual Powder Puff Tournament. The first game consisted of the Seniors vs. the Freshmen, with the Seniors winning and moving on to the final game. The second game was the Sophomores vs. the Juniors. The Juniors played a tough battle but in the end were defeated. The final game was the Seniors vs. the Sophomores and it was a battle to the end. The Seniors walked away with the second win in two years. The weather was a little chilly, but overall the game was a huge success and much fun had by all.

The Technology Education Department

had a busy year. The Architectural Drawing Classes goal was to have a complete set of house plans before the end of the school year. Engineering Drawing class created plans for bridges and built and tested prototypes and also worked on rockets. Printing Technology developed designs on the computer using Indesign, Photoshop, and Illustrator. Boat building had been working on 12 boats. The boats were displayed in the North and South River Watershed's Kayak Expo in the Spring, and were featured in the South Shore Living Magazine. The boats were launched in May. The Building Construction class rebuilt the sitting area at Vetran's Memorial Park this year, as well as installing siding, built a handicap access ramp for the MTIS building, and also rebuilt a shed at the Hatch Mill. In Woodworking, students built tables, chairs, hanging wall shelves, and other items; some of which were entered in the New England Student Design Contest.

California Dreamin'

Marshfield High Music Department took California by storm. Straight from the airport to the Santa Monica Pier, we never missed a chance to see the sights with all our closest friends. From the sweeping views atop the Getty Museum to the attractions at Disneyland, we were together experiencing the trip to its fullest. Our performance in the heart of Fantasyland was fantastic, but nothing topped the fun had with friends. Nightly raves in hotel rooms, pool parties, Bubba Gump's, Venice Beach, and Hollywood Boulevard provided for endless laughs and unforgettable memories. Whether roaming The Block or riding California Screamin' repeatedly, this trip was something all of us will remember for the rest of our lives. Boarding the plane on a beautiful Southern California day to a stormy New England was hardly bearable, but the great times had by all accompanied us back.

Drama Club

Marshfield Drama faced many changes in the 2007-2008 school year and handled them with all the poise and grace of budding performers. Ms. Stephanie Scanlan, a new teacher at MHS, took on the heavy duty of being Drama Advisor, with President Colleen Laffin, VP Kim Santos, Publicity Coordinate Annelise Nielsen, Corresponding Secretary Alex Munoz, and Recording Secretary Adrianne Dunk.

MHS Drama's first show was A Christmas Carol. This theatrical adaptation of Charles Dickens' classic novel, starred senior George Egan as Scrooge, along with seniors Colleen Laffin, Alex Munoz, and James Skrabak as the unforgettable ghosts. This dazzling show sold a full-house both performance nights and wow'ed audiences with both the acting and the set.

For the first time in almost forty years, MHS Drama Club entered the state drama festival competition. Under the direction of Ms. Scanlan, Nick Ryan, Rebecca Murphy, Julia Angley, Ryan Welsh, and Michael Litchfield performed The Complete Works of William Shakespeare (Abridged). With their incredible physical comedy and crafty color coordination MHS was a semi-finalist.

Next the Drama Club performed a series of one-act plays. Seniors Amy Norton, Debby Lagerstedt, James Skrabak, Mary Clare McCorry and FMBS teacher and Tech Director Mr. Sean Baldwin each put on short plays attracting a range of both laughter and tears.

We look forward to the Drama Club's final performance of the 2007-2008 school year which will be the musical Grease, starring seniors Mary Clare McCorry, Michael Litchfield, Megan Riley, and Kyle Jastremski.

Project Reach has helped many kids throughout all five elementary schools. Each high schooler is paired with a child from grades K-5, and for one hour a week helps the student with homework and studying. Each one of the students has a difficult time at home or with school work, and most are in danger of failing. The volunteers act as mentors and help give a guiding hand in the right direction. Many of the students look forward to seeing their volunteers each week and although they will complain about doing their homework, the homework (nearly) always gets done, and the games are always fun to play. Project Reach is a fun way to give back to the community.

Science Club

The science club has stepped up its game this year by visiting the CSI Exhibit at the museum of science and other field trips. We have done a few experiments and spent some time just chatting about what's new in science. Frankie Hoey explains about one of the most recent experiments performed by the club called the naked egg drop where members of the club each had limited materials to catch an egg that would be dropped from feet above their heads! Unfortunately the weather has kept them from performing one of their most celebrated experiments--the Model Rocket Launch, however, with some fine, upcoming spring weather, we hope to be able to launch the rockets very soon. Teachers Mr. Smalley and Mrs. Norton are inspiring students with every class, meeting, or field trip. They are always willing to help their students and obviously have a great devotion to the MHS science department and also to their students.

Student Council

This year, student council worked extremely hard at making events better and making people feel more invited. We held a Halloween Funfest, Semi-formal, Powder Puff Game and many other activities. We started nightly meetings and bonded more as a council. This past February we hosted the annual SEMASC Lock-In and it was a complete success. We have had an amazing year and will really miss our seniors.

Over 200 students from 20 YMCAs met several times learning valuable skills in all four branches of government. The climax of the year was attending a three day overnight conference at the State House in Boston where the bill or judicial brief the students worked on were presented. Marshfield's Youth and Government group was started by Mr. Jack Scanlan and the South Shore YMCA in 2007. The group is advised by Mr. Jack Scanlan and Mr. Bob Gallagher. Creating the 2008 yearbook required countless hours of dedication in and out of the computer lab. Some of the most dedicated students, freshmen and seniors alike brought forth their greatest efforts to make the 2007-2008 " Seasons of the Tide" yearbook possible. Whether we were at yearbook camp, staying late on a Friday or meeting during homeroom, almost every member on the staff dedicated their precious time to make the 2008 yearbook possible. Our staff had a lot of fun going to yearbook camp in the summer of 2007, and we learned a lot about making a yearbook more creative and fun. Our staff put our yearbook online this year which proved to make the book a bit easier to put together (mostly because we were able to work at home. I hope that the Seniors of 2008 will enjoy this book as much as the staff had creating it.

We would like to thank Mr. Keuther, Ms. O'Brien, Tara and the Jostens Studios Staff.A special thanks to Ms. Downes, without her none of this would have been possible. Also everyone who donated pictures,articles, or took the time to help make this yearbook possible.

Upon entering their 2008 season the MHS Girls Varsity team was modestly unaware of their talent. They found that through hard work and strong dedication they could succeed. The team tirelessly practiced, and it showed as they won most of their games. The team fought hard and made it to the second round of their tournament. Though the team worked tirelessly on their technique, they never lost their sense of fun. The team worked together and played together and their tremendous efforts shone through.

The Boys Varsity Basketball Team had a great 2008 season. With a 10-10 score, they made it to the playoffs for the first time in ten years. The team made history with their tireless efforts to reach their goal, but unfortunately lost to Attleborough in the playoffs, with a close game of 65-61. Though the boys lost the playoffs, their constant dedication to their team showed their ultimate love for the sport.

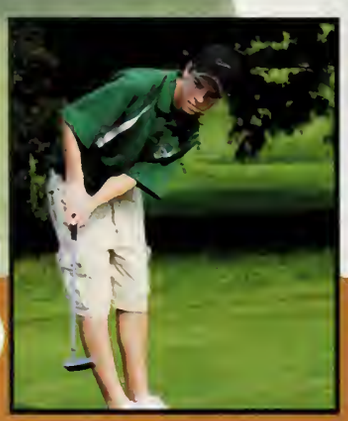
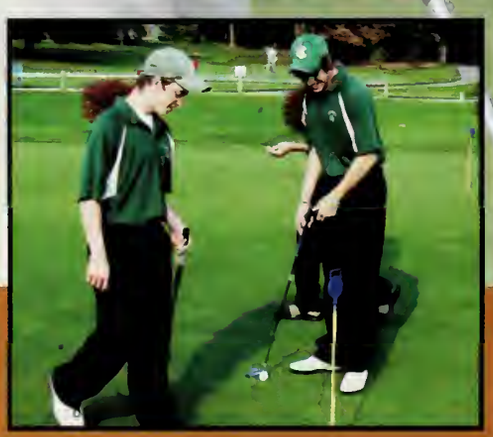
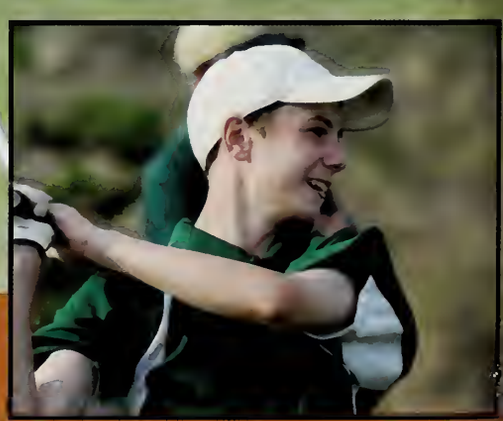
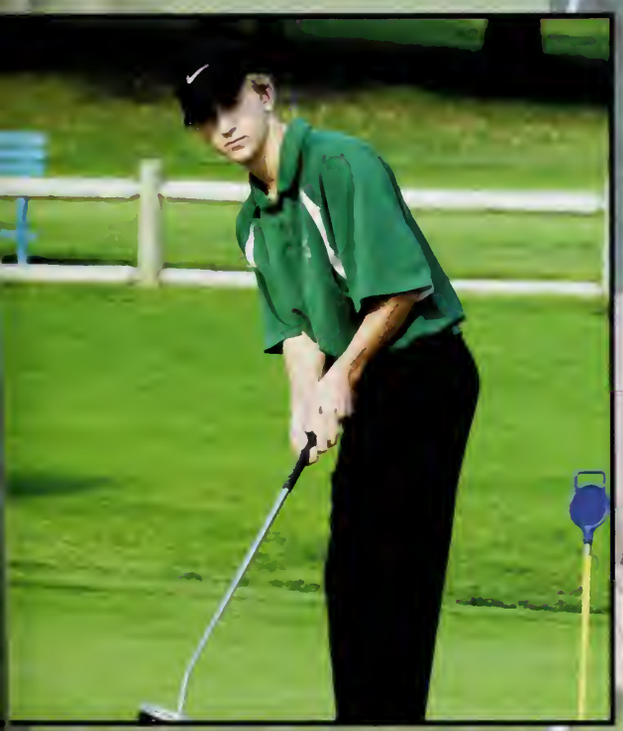
Dennis Zicko has been a mentor to all of the student athletes he worked with over the past 38 years. Nobody knows more about the game of golf than Coach Zicko. The only things more familiar to him than the golf swing are the facets of Newton's Laws. Coach Zicko has led the team to numerous league titles and holds more wins than any other coach in Marshfield High School history. Not only has he influence his players on the course, but stayed involved in their school work and future aspirations. Coach Zicko is a great coach but more importantly he is an outstanding human being. The MHS Golf Program is thankful for his extraordinary dedication and devotion to the program over the past three decades.

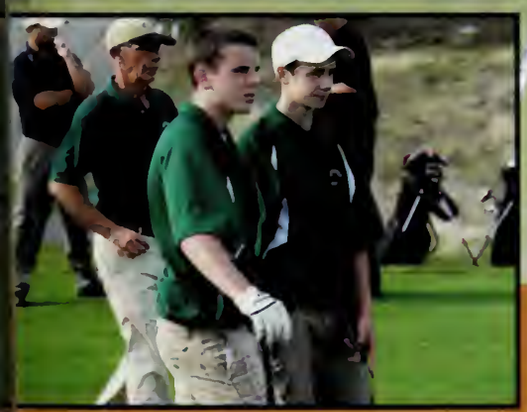
Happy retirement! - Pat Leary

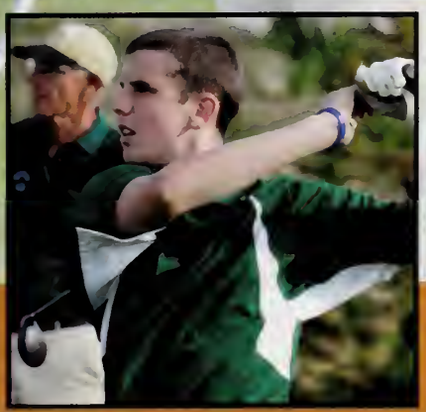












The varsity golf season of 2007 was one to remember. We had a team of diverse kids who all got along very well. We had a few underclassmen who stepped up this year and played great. We had a tough start to the season, suggering a few early season losses but as we came to know one another more, we gained some ground - leading to the ACL title. Finishing up the season with the state tournament, we all competed very well and finished second. Good luck next year. - DavisVanderlin

Front row: Glenne Bachman, Laura Wilson, Kyra Holmquest, Molly Shanley, Callie Hobin, Jill Marchioni.

This year in XC we had a great season. We ended 3rd in the league and ran at the state-class meet. Many girls received awards at invitationals and all the girls got personal records by the end of the season. The highlight of girls XC would have to be learning the soldia boy dance and having a great time together. The Field Hockey Team knew they wanted to turn around their reputation at MHS this year. The determined and tightly knit team did this alongside ambitious Captains, Rachael Nichols, Molly Rader and Erin Ahearn. Coach Fredericks and Coach Powell were overwhelmed by the team's vivacity that compelled the Lady Rams to a winning season of 10-7-1. Highlights were beating rival Sandwich for the first time in 20 years and qualifying for tournament. Inner, Rachael Nichols and Wing, Jen Dowd were awarded league all-stars with an honorable mention to Kara Fidler, the team's power at the center of the field. The girls will certainly work just as hard to fill the spots of their seniors and continue to carry on a revived field hockey team established this past season.

Volleyball

Coach Katie Horne, Jill Carlson, Meghan Collins, Tara Faiella, Lindsey Morrison, Chelsey Covitz, Ashley Ahearn, Katlyn Evans, Rachel Lennon, Liza Jensen Svenja Sjoquist, Nichole Sullivan, Mary Kate McCarthy, Anne Marie Gochis

The girls Varsity Volleyball team worked extremely hard this past season and accomplished several phenomenal goals. Nicole Sullivan and MaryKate McCarthy were top notch captains, leading by positive encouragement and example on the court. Nicole has set every MHS record in Blocking, and MaryKate joined the All-Time Leaders list in career digs. Junior, Lindsey Morrison, led our defense, earning the top spot in Digs in a match and Digs in a season. She also grabbed the attention of our opponents coaches and they voted her ACL All Star.

The Volleyball teams record of 7-12 does not reflect the vast improvement they saw over the course of the season. The girls, led by the four seniors (Nicole, MaryKate, AnneMarie Gochis, and Svenja Sjoquist), embodied the meaning of TEAM and held each other to high standards. The players cheered each other on through the toughest matches and most mentally and physically demanding drills. No one player competed for an individual honor. They were responsible to each other and fought hard for team victories. The 2007-2008 Girls Volleyball team truly exemplified the spirit of Marshfield High School Athletics.

Class History

From terrified freshmen to admirable seniors, this class has been through incredible adversities. Coming to the high school was a defining moment and the start of a new chapter in our lives. Challenges were faced and obstacles were overcome, and today, we can say that we have come to our greatest accomplishment yet - graduating. But through the years it took us to get here, we have made lasting memories.

Our first task entering the high school was taking on Deck the Halls. As the clueless freshmen we were, our theme, you could say, was a little unorganized! With some stop signs, orange cones, and a few colored Christmas lights, we finally finished our construction site. As chaotic as it was, it was our own creation and we just had fun with it. Later on in the spring, we took on Freshmen Fun Night, a night filled with laughter and unity of the freshmen class. From the moonwalk to intense dodge ball matches, the class had this one night to come together and we did.

Comfortable, now, in the high school as sophomores, we ran our first successful raffle. By raffling off gift certificates at football games, we were able to put some money in the bank - literally! Again we went through Deck the Halls and our theme became a carnival. It was a creative idea, and the final product came out amazing - but in the end - the seniors took the Pride Cup. In March of that year, we organized our Fashion Show. From ski wear to formal wear, the show was a great fund raiser and an exciting night for the class to do a little dressing up.

Coming into our third year at MHS, we were finally named upperclassmen! This year was an important one academically but we managed to get rid of the stress and have a little fun along the way. Our Deck the Halls was a smashing hit! We incorporated Community Christmas, Helping Hands, and a Food Pantry Drive into our theme of giving back to the community. Not only did we help out the town of Marshfield, we came together as a class to help the community. It was an unbelievable contribution and as a result, we won Pride Week! It was the start of our back-to-back victory in Deck the Halls. Aside from our hard work with Deck the Halls, we still had to do a lot of work for prom. With tons of time, effort, and hard work, we pulled off a fantastic night for everyone. It was the perfect night and everything went smoothly, just as we'd planned. The stress was over and it was time to have a good time...which is exactly what we did.

Last, but certainly not least, our senior year had finally come. Our year to be on top was here! We climbed the Blue Hills for Meeting on the Mountain, the class officers danced (well at least tried to!) in front of the entire school to win Pride Week, and we organized Marshfield's first-ever male beauty pageant - Mr. MHS. Senior year was stressful at first with applying to college, but afterwards, it was all downhill from there. May was the month of events - graduation, grad night live, senior night out, boat cruise, banquet, and field day - where the class of 2008 had their last laughs together. Graduating high school is our highest achievement, and even though we will all go our separate ways, we'll never forget where we came from.

My best goes out to the Class of 2008!
Good Luck,
Ryan Gorman
Historian - Class of 2008

To the Class of 2008

All successful chefs will tell you that it is the combination of the ingredients that produce the dramatic end results. The art of cooking, like life, will give you some of the greatest challenges, but also some of the greatest awards. All chefs must learn to work together in their respected environments.

As freshman entering Marshfield High School, I met you as young, eager and very quiet students who each represented a single ingredient. Four years later and many adjustments to the recipe, you leave MHS as a well blended recipe. As individuals you have shown that you are eager and ready to move on to the next phase of your life. The years ahead of you will guide you and teach you how to perfect your own recipe. Each and every one of you will be able to add something to your recipe to make it special.

As you look back at your four years at MHS, you will remember the triumphs, the laughs, your teachers and your friends. What I hope for each and every one of you is that you enjoyed your time in the mixer and when you are finished mixing and cooking that you have achieved your desired results.

It is important to remember that sometimes the ingredients we are using will need to be adjusted. Aspiring chefs need to learn how to compromise and be patient while trying to find the perfect blend. Remember that life will teach you to cook, it will inspire the inner you and sometimes you might need an adjustment. That's okay! In the beginning we were all in the mixer together, but over the last four years the uniqueness, talents and aspirations of the class have produced a Recipe for Success. Each of you has added your own special ingredient.

While you are still learning how to get the perfect balance, find that secret ingredient it is important to enjoy your life, remember what truly is important, enjoy that the kitchen at MHS is always open. And finally, remember that the secret to a good recipe is to prepare it, bake it, and serve it with love.

I have enjoyed the last four years with you. I will miss all of you and wish you nothing but the best in the years ahead. May all your dreams come true!

In Fond Memory of...

Rhyan Fleming

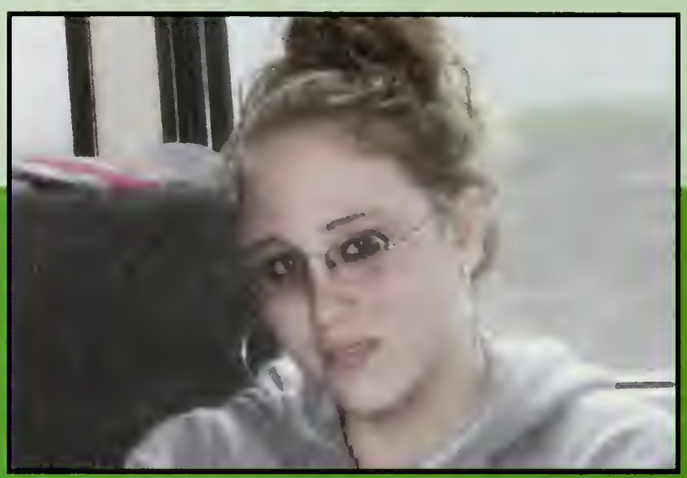
"In the depth of your hopes and desires lies your silent knowledge of the beyond ;
and like seeds dreaming beneath the snow
your heart dreams of spring.
Trust the dreams, for in them is hidden the gate to eternity...
and only when you drink from the river of silence
shall you indeed sing.
and when you have reached the mountain top,
then you shall begin to climb,
and when the earth shall claim your limbs,
then shall you truly dance."
-Kabil Gibran

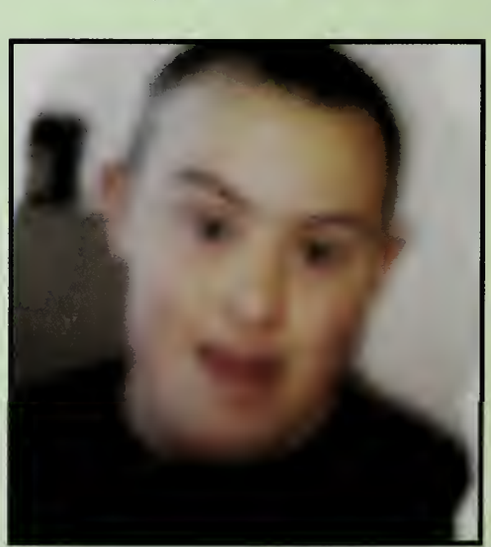


Christopher Pontillo

Each night we shed a silent tear,
As we speak to you in prayer.
To let you know we love you,
And just how much we care.
Take our million teardrops,
Wrap them up in love,
Then ask the wind to carry them,
To you in heaven above.

Evan Collins

If your sorrow can be lessened,
In some warm and special way,
By knowing that so many share,
In your loss with you today.
And if it brings you comfort,
When others show they care,
Please know that thoughts are with you,
And remember they are there.
-Bert Page



Melanie Powell

April16,1990-July 26,2003

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, don't lengthen it now with undone grief. Lift up your hearts and share with me, for I'm with the angels now, God has set me free

Melanie was my best friend and a friend to all of us. Although her death was tragic, her memory is still strong and with us every day of our lives. Melanie was always a very nice and wonderful person. As the years have past, her friends and family are always in my thoughts. Even though she isn't here to graduate with us, I know she is there watching over and very proud of us making it through high school. Melanie Powell was my best friend and her spirit is and always will be with me. –

There are not too many people who can say they have been friends since the day they were born. You met each otherwhen you were both less than 24 hours old and for 18 years you have built a truly spacial bond that will last a lifetime!

Everyone has a "best friend" during each stage of life~ only a precious few have the same one.

It has been our greatest joy watching you both blossom on and off the field. You have made us laugh and made us cry, but most of all, you have made us so proud of the young ladies have have become!

Remember, There is no distance too far between best friends, for friendship gives wings to the heart.
Good luck next year~

Your more than best friends
you're sisters too,
and there will never be a time
I'm not there for you.

I've grown up with you all through the passed years,
we've seen each others smiles and each others tears.
We've fought with each other and made each other sad, but even the bad times weren't that bad.
So it is time to keep growing up but still chill together because your my girls and we will always be forever.
